Description

Beautiful Old Aboriginal Ceremonial Dance Hat

Description:

An elaborate ceremonial dance hat or kajawur from the Lardil group who inhabit Mornington Island in north Queensland. These hats are only worn by the men performing dances during circumcision ceremonies. This hat was collected in the 1950's and unlike the few I have seen of that age, it is in remarkable condition. The hat consists of a paper bark base which has hand spun human hair woven around the exterior. Emu feathers are attached atop with string, red and white ochres are then applied. Height is 44cm. Shipping to the US is $28US with Airmail. Item listed with No Reserve! Please click "View Sellers Other Items" as I have just listed 12 exceptional pieces including two early shields, a lonka lonka, two great barks, a rare club and a large Clifford Possum painting.
